OCTOBER 25 - BULLETIN REFLECTION

- 1st Reading: Exodus 22:20-26
- 2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5-10
- Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that the greatest commandments are to love God with all our heart, soul, and mind, and to love our neighbour as ourselves. These two commandments are deeply connected—our love for God is revealed through the way we care for and respond to the people around us.

The readings remind us that faith is not only something we believe; it is something we live. In Exodus, God calls His people to show compassion and care for those who are vulnerable. In his letter to the Thessalonians, St. Paul celebrates a community whose faith was made visible through their actions and their example.

As we reflect on these readings, we are invited to consider how our own lives can become a reflection of God's love. Through simple acts of kindness, generosity, and compassion, we help make Christ's love present in the world.

PRAYER OF INTERCESSION:

For all of us, that we may grow in our love of God and neighbor, reaching out with compassion and kindness to those who are in need and becoming faithful witnesses of Christ's love in the world.

The Archdiocese of Regina is located on Treaty 4 Territory, the traditional lands of the Nêhiyawak, Nahkawé, and Nakota, and homeland of the Dakota, Lakota, and Métis peoples.

ArchRegina Congress: BLESSINGS REMEMBERED, HOPE RENEWED

WHAT MIGHT GOD BE INVITING OUR PARISH COMMUNITIES TO BECOME, AND WHERE DO WE BEGIN?

Join us for our annual Archdiocese of Regina Congress on October 31 at Resurrection Parish from 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM (with Mass at 9:00 AM).

Together we'll continue to explore God's vision for the Church and consider what that vision might look like in our parishes. Through prayer, communal discernment, and creative activities, we'll reflect on our blessings, name our challenges, and share our hopes and ideas for the future. Together, we'll identify practical, pastoral next steps for our parishes and our diocese and set a path forward as we prepare for our Archdiocesan Synod Assembly in May 2027.

Please REGISTER by Monday, OCTOBER 26, to mqrash@archregina.sk.ca or call 306-352-1651.

Giving Hope Today

Regina Centre of Hope (formerly Waterston Centre) is doing a winter clothing drive. They are collecting mitts, toques, and larger-sized men's winter jackets (new or gently used).

This is an ongoing need through the cold winter months. Contributions can be dropped off at 1845 Osler Street, Regina.

If you have any clean, empty jars to donate, there is a bin for them under the table by the parking lot entrance.

Thank YOU!

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SEASON SOWING SOLIDARITY!

The Harvest is IN. Did you know that GROW HOPE SASKATCHEWAN, an ecumenical initiative of the Canadian Foodgrains Bank, is wrapping up its 9th season of growing crops to fight hunger around the world? Generous farming families in Saskatchewan have pledged 505 acres this year, but they need your help to maximize their yield! Generous donors match this contribution by covering input costs for those acres (fuel, fertilizer, etc.) valued at $350 an acre. The deadline to support the 2026 growing season is October 31. To give visit www.growhopesk.ca/donate and locate “Development and Peace” in the list of agencies.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”
Matthew 22:37

Do you put other “gods” before God? Is your love of money, power, status, comfort or some personal possession greater than your love for God? Do you recognize that everything you have and that everything you are is a gift from God? Putting God first in everything helps keep us from becoming a slave to our possessions and to our pride.

Emmaus Mental Health Caregivers Support Group

Are you supporting a loved one living with mental health challenges? You are not alone. Our Emmaus Spiritual Peer Support for Caregivers groups offer a safe, faith-based space for those walking alongside a loved one experiencing mental health struggles. These gatherings provide prayer, reflection, and compassionate peer support rooted in the hope of Christ. We currently have groups operating once a month in Regina & Saskatoon with in-person and online options available.

For more information or to join, please contact:

DID YOU KNOW? SASKATCHEWAN’S FIRST KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL WAS FOUNDED IN REGINA?

Long before Saskatchewan celebrated its first birthday as a province, Catholic men in Regina established what would become Council 1247.

Founded in 1906, Regina Council 1247 was the first Knights of Columbus council in Saskatchewan.

For more than a century, members have supported Catholic parishes, schools, seminarians, charities, youth programs and families throughout Regina and beyond. Generations of Catholic men have carried the Council forward, each contributing in their own way to building both parish and community life.

Today, Council 1247 continues that legacy from its home at St. Anne Parish.

➡ If you are a man of St. Anne Parish who wants to know more about the Knights of Columbus, call or e-mail the Parish Office for more information.

TF S04 | E04| Should Catholics Celebrate Halloween? Faith, Fun, and Hallows' Eve

Is Halloween compatible with Catholic faith? Should Catholics participate in trick-or-treating, costumes, and spooky traditions, or should Christians avoid Halloween altogether? In this episode of Thinking Faith, Deacon Eric Gurash and guest host Brayden Kunz explore the Catholic roots of Halloween and its connection to All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day. They discuss common concerns about Halloween, the difference between harmless fun and genuinely problematic occult practices, and why participating in neighbourhood traditions can be an opportunity for community, connection, and faith. Discover how Halloween can open the door to meaningful conversations about death, the communion of saints, prayer for the dead, and the Christian hope of resurrection. From traditional soul cakes and cemetery visits to saint costumes and Mexican sugar-skull traditions, Eric and Brayden share practical ways Catholic families can celebrate Halloween while keeping faith at the heart of the season. Whether you love Halloween or have questions about its place in Catholic life, this conversation offers a thoughtful, balanced approach to celebrating All Hallows' Eve without fear or superstition.

Spirit River Community: A Retreat Centre Without Walls Upcoming Workshops

The UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples and the Sermon on the Mount

Instructors: Rev. Mitchell Anderson and Rev. Dr. Don Schweitzer

Thursdays, November 5, 12, 19, 26 - 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. CST

This is going to be an engaging exploration of one document I would suspect few of us know well, and a teaching from Jesus that many of us know very well! As the churches are committed to being Treaty People, I wanted you to know that these four classes are taking place. I am encouraging groups of people to come together to watch/participate in these classes - whether around a computer in someone's home, or in a church hall. Group rates are available - I will accept any amount a group can offer. What I am hoping for is a good size group of participants to come and learn together.

The image is a promotional flyer for the diaconate. It features a collage of three photographs: a priest in white vestments with a red stole, a wedding ceremony with a bride and groom, and a group of men in clerical attire. The text is in a mix of bold, sans-serif and serif fonts. The main heading is 'DO YOU HAVE A DEACONS HEART?'. Below it is a section titled 'Signs that you Might be Called' with a bulleted list. At the bottom, there is a text box about the archdiocese's discernment process and contact information for Deacon LaMont Dyck.

DO YOU HAVE A DEACONS HEART?

Signs that you Might be Called

- A persistent pull toward deeper service.
- A strong prayer life and a love for scripture.
- A desire to serve both Church and community, especially the poor, sick and marginalized.
- Affirmation from others who recognize your servant heart.

The archdiocese is discerning the possibility of journeying with a new group of men on the path to the permanent diaconate in 2028. This fall, they want to hear from you. If you are interested or want more information on the diaconate, please contact Deacon LaMont Dyck.
