Stewardship Bulletin Bit April 17, 2022 Easter Sunday

"...He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him." (Acts 10:38)

We can't give what we don't have.
Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, "we are made for greatness." Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more!
We are made for God!

This Holy Thursday, Let's Celebrate our Priests and Pray for them!!

As we commemorate the Institution of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, let us thank God for the gift of priesthood, pray for our priests and ask for more priestly vocations.

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests. Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments. Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.

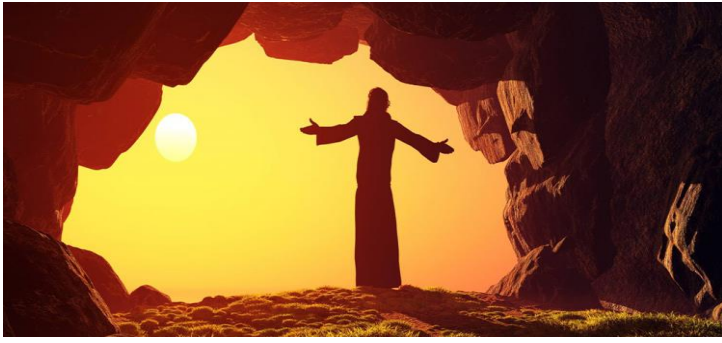

Set their souls on fire with love for your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry. Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

Did you know... "The spiritual traditions of the First Nations are based first and foremost on the belief that there is only one God, often referred to as the father or Creator. The relationship between the Creator and First Nations' peoples is understood to be like that which exists between various members of a family and is thus governed by laws of Wahkohtowin (kinship), laws detailing the duties and responsibilities which take effect for each member of the family unit." Experiencing the Resurrection

The events of the Resurrection bring hope in the knowledge that Christ is alive, and he wants us to be alive too. The Resurrection of Christ is the principle of new life for all of us and begins with conversion of heart and conscience. May this time of renewed hope enable humanity to respond to social injustices, homelessness, humanitarian crisis, and calls for freedom and peace.

May the Risen Lord, who flung open the doors of the tomb, open our hearts to the needs of the disadvantaged, the poor and vulnerable, the unemployed, the outcasts, and all those who knock on the door in search for bread, refuge, and acknowledgement of their human dignity.

I recently read a poem which told a story of the strength and importance of hope called 'Four Candles'. The candles represented peace, faith, love and hope. The first candle, which was peace, went out because the world was so full of violence and fighting. The second candle said, "I am Faith but I am no longer needed in this world" and with that it went out. Then the third candle began to speak saying "I am love. People don't understand my importance, so they put me aside and they even forget to love those closest to them" Love's flame then went out too.

A child then entered the room – saw the four candles and wondered why only one was lit as they were all meant to be aflame until the end of time. The fourth candle responded, "Do not be afraid, I am hope!" and while I am still burning, we can re-light the other candles. The child's eyes were shining at they picked up the candle of hope and re-lit the other candles. The child was told the greatest of these is love but the candle of hope should never go out in your life. With hope each of us can live with peace, faith and love!

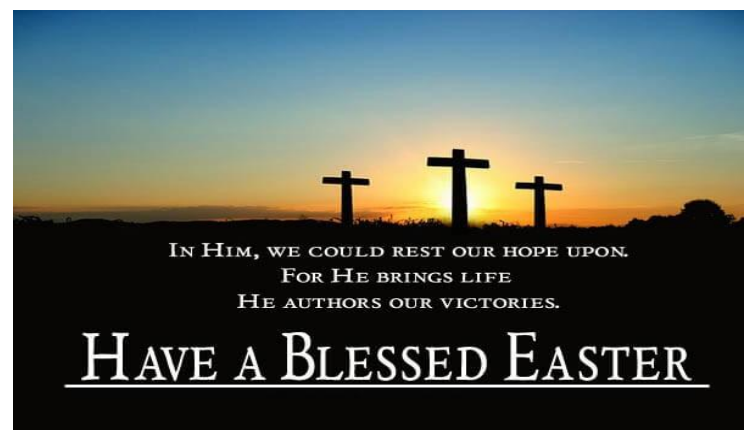

Tribute flowers are a long tradition at St. Anne

These will beautify the parish throughout the Easter season and into the summer. The names of those honoured will be published in Easter Season bulletins. If you would like to participate this Easter there are several ways you can do this.

Put your cheque or cash into an envelope marked "FLOWERS" Along with your donation (suggestion is 20$) and your name, include the name of the person/s you wish honoured. Drop this into the collection basket when you come to Mass. Alternately, you can put your donation in the mail, or drop it off in the parish mailbox out front.

St. Anne's address is: 1701 Cowan Crescent,
Regina, SK S4S 4C4

Remember to include the names of those you wish honored. If you can, it would be helpful if you could add your envelope number to your information.

Mission Statement: We, the Catholic Parish of St. Anne, centred in Word and Eucharist, are called to be a caring faith community; coming together to celebrate God's love and truth through the sacraments, and make Christ present to others through loving service.
