Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (John 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

A Volunteer Sacristan needed

St. Anne Parish is in need of a volunteer Sacristan. A sacristan opens and closes the Church doors before and after every Mass.

He/She will be responsible to set up the Church and the Altar before Mass.

If you are interested in volunteering or want to learn more, please contact the Parish office / Parish Priest (office@stannesregina.com) or call us at 306-586-0449.

What are the promises attached to Divine Mercy Sunday? And how can I attain them?

St. Faustina said Jesus told her:

“The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion [on Divine Mercy Sunday] shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow.”

The “Image of Divine Mercy” is a painted depiction of Jesus as he appeared to St. Faustina. Jesus is clothed in white and raising his right hand in a gesture of blessing. Red and white rays are emitted from Jesus’ heart, signifying the blood and water that flowed from Christ’s heart at the crucifixion, and the sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist.

What’s the origin of Divine Mercy Sunday?

The Divine Mercy devotion originates in a series of apparitions in the 1930s, in which St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, sister in Polan, recorded that Jesus appeared to her.

St. Faustina said that during the apparitions, Jesus asked her to spread the message of his great mercy toward the world.

Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina on April 30, 2000. That same day, he also instituted Divine Mercy Sunday as a feast for the universal Church.

What exactly did Jesus tell St. Faustina?

The message St. Faustina received from Jesus is recounted in “The Diary of Saint Faustina.” The central message is that Jesus desires to grant his great mercy to souls. He wants people to trust in his mercy, to ask for it, and to allow themselves to be vessels of his mercy for others.

What are the promises attached to Divine Mercy Sunday? And how can I attain them?

St. Faustina said Jesus told her:

“The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion [on Divine Mercy Sunday] shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow.”

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday following Easter. St. Faustina recorded that Jesus said he wants this feast to be “a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners.” On this feast, he promises that the depths of his mercy are available to humanity: “I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy.”

Walking Together at the Archdiocesan Synod Gathering

Save the date for the upcoming Archdiocesan Synod Gathering. As the diocesan phase of the Synod comes to a conclusion, everyone is invited to join in an historic first ever gathering of the whole people of God in our diocese. Saturday, May 28 from 10 am to 4 pm (come early for Mass at 9 am). Resurrection Parish, 3155 Windsor Park Rd, Regina.

Come join in the final discussions and revisions of our diocesan report on the Synod before we send it on towards the Synod of Bishops in 2023.

Everyone is welcome. All parishes and groups should be represented. Plan now to be part of this time of reflection and prayer together with your archbishop.

Did you know... "Spirituality is an understanding that all of the Creator's creations, including the smallest insect and the air we breathe, have a life force or a spirit and are therefore sacred. During the time of Treaty signing, the first Nations understood the term "As Long As the Sun Shines, the Rivers Flow, and the Grass Grows" to mean that the spirit of each element (sun, grass, river) is a witness to the exchanges that were happening." (Cultural Teachings: First Nations Protocols and Methodologies, SICC, p.15)

We acknowledge that we are in Treaty Four Territory, Traditional lands of the Nehiyawak (Cree), Anishinabe (Saulteaux), and Nakota people. Homeland to the Dakota, Lakota and Metis peoples.

Mission Statement: We, the Catholic Parish of St. Anne, centred in Word and Eucharist, are called to be a caring faith community; coming together to celebrate God's love and truth through the sacraments, and make Christ present to others through loving service.
