Have a good Summer!!

Mission Statement: We, the Catholic Parish of St. Anne, centred in Word and Eucharist, are called to be a caring faith community; coming together to celebrate God's love and truth through the sacraments, and make Christ present to others through loving service.

If you're looking for a fun and very important way of helping at St. Anne, please consider volunteering to help count the weekly collection after Mass on Sundays. The Parrish needs to have two counters present.

The usual commitment is a month of Sundays per year, and the counting is easy and can be done in under an hour. No money handling experience is needed.

If you are interested, please contact the Office at (306) 586-0449.

We look forward to hearing from you!!

Bible Verse To Read In The Morning

Philip Kosloski - published on 08/17/22

Read this Bible verse to start your day on the right foot.

Reading the Bible can be a great way to start your day, and this can be as simple as reading a short Bible verse in the morning.

Here is a short and simple Bible verse that asks God to shower us with his mercy, that the rest of the day may be spent in joy.

"Fill us at daybreak with your mercy, that all our days we may sing for joy."

PSALM 90:14

Bible Verse To Read Before Going To Bed

Philip Kosloski - published on 08/12/22

Read this Bible verse to ease your heart and invite God to grant you a restful sleep.

Often when we lie down there are a million things going through our minds. This can make it difficult to fall asleep and can increase our anxiety.

One way to combat this is to recite a short Bible verse, inviting God into our lives and asking Him to watch over us as we sleep.

Here is a Bible verse from one of the Psalms to read before going to bed, reminding us that God is watching over us.

*"In peace I will both lie down and sleep;
for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety."*

PSALM 4:8

August 21, 2022

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." Luke 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "What have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." Luke 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser you pay money and receive something in return, it's just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

A Powerful Prayer For Peace In The World

Here is a short but powerful prayer from St. John XXIII that calls upon God to intervene and establish a lasting reign of peace.

Lord Jesus Christ, who are called the Prince of Peace, who are yourself our peace and reconciliation, who so often said, "Peace to you," grant us peace. Make all men and women witnesses of truth, justice, and brotherly love. Banish from their hearts whatever might endanger peace. Enlighten our rulers that they may guarantee and defend the great gift of peace. May all peoples of the earth become as brothers and sisters. May longed-for peace blossom forth and reign always over us all. Amen
