WORLD DAY
OF THE SICK

It is not good that man should be alone

Aleteia - published on 02/02/24

We join with the saints in praying through our Mother's Heart.
We pray, with St. Teresa of Calcutta:

"Mary, give me your Heart: so beautiful, so pure, so immaculate; your Heart so full of love and humility that I may be able to receive Jesus in the Bread of Life and love Him as you love Him and serve Him in the distressing guise of the poor."

And with St. John Paul II:

"Immaculate Heart of Mary ... Let there be revealed once more in the history of the world the infinite saving power of the redemption: the power of merciful love. May it put a stop to evil. May it transform consciences. May your Immaculate Heart reveal for all the light of hope."

And with St. Francis of Assisi:

"Immaculate Heart of Mary, Cause of Our Joy, pray for us!"

Please DO NOT put things on bulletin boards or tables UNLESS authorized by Fr. Amédée or the Parish Office! Thank YOU!

Is located
under the table
by the parking lot entrance.

A POWERFUL PRAYER AGAINST ANY KIND OF SICKNESS

Philip Kosloski - published on 02/08/21

Prayed with faith and devotion, it is a prayer that invokes God's power to combat any disease.

Throughout the centuries disease and death have plagued most of the world, and Christians have often turned to God for deliverance. While medicine has greatly improved, it does not eliminate the need to invoke God's powerful aid in the fight against disease.

Here is a prayer from The Glories of the Catholic Church that was originally aimed at cholera but has since been extended to any kind of sickness.

It was revealed to a venerable priest at Rome that whoever should repeat this prayer, with devotion, would escape the cholera.

O Jesus, divine Redeemer, be merciful to us, and the entire world. Amen. O mighty God! O Holy God, O Immortal God! have pity on us, and the entire world. Amen. Grant us pardon and mercy, O my Jesus; and during these days of present danger pour down your most precious blood upon us. Amen. O eternal Father, have mercy on us, through the sacred blood of Jesus Christ, your only Son; have mercy on us, we beseech you. Amen.
