How mothers are "tabernacles" for their unborn children

Mothers hold within themselves the life of another human being, making them tabernacles safeguarding the image of God.

Each Catholic Church has a tabernacle within it, protecting and guarding the Eucharistic presence of God.

In a similar way, the Blessed Mother was the first "tabernacle," holding within herself Jesus Christ.

Keeping this same symbolism, St. Zelig Martin, the mother of St. Therese of Lisieux, wrote in a letter that every mother should be a "tabernacle" for the life they hold.

Above all, during the months immediately preceding the birth of her child, the mother should keep close to God, of whom the infant she bears within her is the image, the handiwork, the gift and the child. She should be for her offspring, as it were, a temple, a sanctuary, an altar, a tabernacle. In short, her life should be, so to speak, the life of a living sacrament, a sacrament in act, burying herself in the bosom of that God who has so truly instituted it and hallowed it, so that there she may draw that energy, that enlightening, that natural and supernatural beauty which He wills, and wills precisely by her means, to impart to the child she bears and to be born of her.

The Story of a Family

St. Zelig provides a beautiful reminder to all mothers that the life they bear is holy to God. It is why mothers should do all they can to protect the unborn human life they hold and to cherish the time of pregnancy.

Being pregnant is certainly not easy, but mothers can look to the Blessed Mother for inspiration and strength, recognizing the divine calling they have received to be a "tabernacle" of human life.

Buildings and Grounds Requests

Spring has finally arrived and summer is not far behind. With that, the buildings and grounds team has a few requests:

- A work bee will be held on Saturday May 21 to clean up the church grounds. See a note elsewhere in the bulletin for this.
- We need a person or a team to take care of the landscaping maintenance this summer. This means cutting the grass, trimming hedges, picking up branches and trash, etc. You can volunteer for part or all of this. Tools and training are provided. Contact the office, Kelly Nelson or Bert Perrault.
- We're seeking for a handyperson to do minor repairs at the church. This volunteer or paid position would amount to two-six hours of work per week at your convenience. Call Bert Perrault or Kelly Nelson for details.
- The buildings and grounds team could use a third co-lead to help coordinate the work which needs to be done. See Kelly Nelson, Bert Perrault or Fr Amédée if you're interested. Buildings and grounds experience is not required, but being a leader would be helpful.
- In June 2021 the hall stage curtains were damaged by a water leak, and they went missing. If you know where they are, or went to, please let Kelly Nelson or the office know.
