Walking Together: Archdiocese of Regina Synod Gathering

Join us on Saturday, May 28, 2022, from 10 AM - 4 PM (with optional 9:00 AM Mass) at Resurrection Parish (3155 Windsor Park Rd, Regina) for our Archdiocesan Synod Gathering. The day will feature presentations on the Synod process and a detailed discussion of the final Diocesan Report. We will discuss the report, make revisions as needed, and consider changes to the Pastoral Priorities of the Archdiocese. There will be a satellite gathering held simultaneously at Christ the Redeemer Parish in Swift Current for those unable to gather in Regina. This event will also be livestreamed to provide greater access for those unable to travel from other parts of the Archdiocese of Regina.

The registration deadline is
Wednesday, May 25, 2022
Lunch will be provided.

To register for the Regina location:

Sr. Lucia of Fatima told Cardinal Carlo Caffarra that a "decisive battle between the kingdom of Christ and Satan will be over marriage and the family."

Our Lady of Fatima's original private revelations looked grimly at the world, prophesying both death and destruction. One of the visionaries, Sr. Lucia, later revealed to an Italian cardinal that there would be a "final battle" over marriage and the family.

Cardinal Carlo Caffarra revealed these prophetic words in an interview with Aleteia in 2017, explaining how he had received a handwritten note from Sr. Lucia.

The letter ended, saying (in 1983 or 1984): "Father, a time will come when the decisive battle between the kingdom of Christ and Satan will be over marriage and the family. And those who will work for the good of the family will experience persecution and tribulation. But do not be afraid, because Our Lady has already crushed his head."

Cardinal Caffarra believed these words of Sr. Lucia were being fulfilled in our present age, especially with the horrors of abortion and the legalization of homosexual marriage.

Today, what do we observe? Two terrible events. First, the legitimization of abortion. That is, abortion has become a subjective right of woman. Now, 'subjective right' is an ethical category and therefore we are here entering into the world of good and evil, and we say that abortion is a good; it is a right. The second thing we see is the attempt to equate homosexual relationships with marriage.

These two issues have led to much persecution of those who oppose them, both physically and verbally.

The good news is the final words of Sr. Lucia to Cardinal Caffarra.

Do not be afraid, because Our Lady has already crushed his head.

While the final battle continues to rage in the world, the key is to not be afraid and trust that Our Lady will triumph and peace will reign.

Many Hands Make Light Work....Calling all hands on deck...

You are invited to participate in a good old-fashioned work bee to prepare the church property for spring. Come together as a parish community working, using social distancing, to beautify our property.

When: Saturday May 21st (rain day May 28)

Time: 9 am - 12 pm.

What to Bring: water bottle, snacks for yourself, hat, work clothing/gloves/shoes

Team Categories: garbage pickup, raking, clean up flower beds, clean rectory exterior windows

Youth: This is the day where you could possibly build hours toward your community service.

Sign up today so we can plan the work.

The Regina Archdiocesan Office is Moving to a Temporary Location

Things you need to know

- For the remainder of the month, you may have difficulty reaching some of our staff.
- Our new temporary location is in place to ensure that the day-to-day operations of the diocese continue to run smoothly. This space isn't big and isn't set up for drop-in visiting. You are encouraged to make contact with us through telephone or email(see the attached contact list).
- You can continue to mail us using our current address (445 Broad St. N.) as our mail is being forwarded.
- We will keep you updated as things progress.

We thank you for your patience during this time!

Mission Statement: We, the Catholic Parish of St. Anne, centred in Word and Eucharist, are called to be a caring faith community; coming together to celebrate God's love and truth through the sacraments, and make Christ present to others through loving service.
