If you can provide this service for the full winter or, even for part of it, or do all of the shovelling or just some of it, please contact either the office (306-586-0449) or Kelly Nelson (306-536-9932).

BULLETIN REFLECTION

First Sunday of Advent

1st Reading: Isaiah 2.1-5

2nd Reading: Romans 13.11-14

Gospel: Matthew 24.37-44

Today is the first Sunday of Advent, the time of anticipation to celebrate the birth of Jesus. The readings are full of the language of anticipation. Isaiah's vision shows the coming of the Lord, and challenges us to walk in the light of life. Saint Paul's letter to the Romans shows us that to properly prepare for the coming of Christ is to live in the ways of the Spirit.

Jesus tells us in the Gospel that He is indeed coming, and we should have the spirit of awareness and preparation in our lives: aware of our relationship with Christ and preparing our lives in such a way that whenever we see Jesus, we will be ready.

The Annual Appeal directly supports catechesis and education. These offices provide resources to parishes and schools to have the skills and tools to prepare us to know Christ deeply and enable us to prepare ourselves in the best way we can. As we prepare to welcome the Child Jesus, let us support the appeal's commitment to education with our contributions.

1st Sunday of Advent

“Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.” Matthew 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily, and you begin to see God’s active presence in your life. You grow in gratitude, each day for all that we have been given.

MISSION STATEMENT: We, the Catholic Parish of St. Anne, centred in Word and Eucharist, are called to be a caring faith community; coming together to celebrate God’s love and truth through the sacraments, and make Christ present to others through loving service.

What is Advent?

Caitlin Bootsma - published on 01/21/13

Advent is more than a countdown – it’s a season of prayerful expectation of the coming of Christ at Christmas and of His second coming.

Advent comes from the Latin word adventus (which means “coming ” or “visit”) and is the designated liturgical season awaiting the coming of Christ at Christmas. Advent, however, is not only a time to prepare for Christmas, but also to recall that Christ promised He would come again at the end of time. The Church invites us to enter into Advent through increased prayer, frequenting of the sacraments and pious acts, recalling Christ’s presence in our lives.

In the liturgical calendar of the Catholic Church, the first day of a new year is not 1st January, but rather the first Sunday of Advent. Advent is considered the first liturgical season of the year, beginning four Sundays before Christmas and ending on Christmas Eve.

As Catholics, we believe that Christ will come again to earth at the end of time; thus we profess in the Creed each Sunday, “He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end” (Nicene Creed). During Advent, as we prepare for Christ’s coming at Christmas, we also recall the promise of Christ’s return.

Advent is thus a time of vigilant expectation for the Second Coming as well as an acknowledgment that we will be judged by Christ for our actions and decisions. It is for this reason that Advent is a time of repentance – we wait in expectant joy for the coming of Christ, but should also seek forgiveness for our sins so that we might be ready to account for our lives.
